reporte julio 2026.

el trabajo ideal en argentina 2026:

qué valora el talento y cuáles son las empresas más atractivas.

En un escenario laboral profundamente reconfigurado, las expectativas del talento han elevado los estándares del mercado. Hoy observamos un mayor desafío para las organizaciones al momento de dar respuesta a demandas clave como la flexibilidad, el equilibrio entre la vida personal y profesional, un clima organizacional positivo y verdaderas posibilidades de desarrollo.

Comprender esta nueva complejidad es fundamental para atraer y fidelizar a los mejores perfiles. Los resultados de la edición 2026 del Randstad Employer Brand Research confirman que el talento actual prioriza una propuesta de valor integral: busca espacios donde pueda realizarse, conectar con un propósito claro y acceder a oportunidades genuinas de crecimiento.

Al analizar la profundidad de esta evolución, Andrea Avila, CEO de Randstad para Argentina, Chile, México y Uruguay, destacó: "Sentido de pertenencia, comunidad, realización personal, bienestar, son cosas que aparecen cada vez con más fuerza cuando se indaga en lo que las personas buscan en un trabajo, y eso marca la complejidad del mix de factores monetarios y no monetarios que las organizaciones tienen que contemplar para ser una opción atractiva para el talento".

Las prioridades también moldean la percepción general del mercado, consolidando este año a sectores como la industria Farmacéutica, la Automotriz y la Energía como los más atractivos para desarrollarse profesionalmente en el país.

Este informe va más allá de exponer las tendencias actualizadas en compensación, profundizando cómo el factor salarial interactúa con estas nuevas prioridades para moldear de manera integral las expectativas del talento.
